§10:126A-2.4 Use of family child care provider when child abuse or neglect is substantiated

(a) The Division shall stop using, and the Department of Human Services or its agents shall suspend payment to, a family child care provider for each child under the Division's supervision when the Department of Children and Families' child protection investigator:

1. Completes a child protection investigation of the provider or a family member; and
2. Makes a finding of substantiated in accordance with N.J.A.C. 10:129-7.3(c)1.

(b) When a family child care provider appeals the finding of substantiated, the Division shall not authorize use of the family child care provider for any child supervised by the Division until:

1. All appeals are completed; and
2. The finding of substantiated has been overturned.
